

No visitors

The government has said all services must be closed for two weeks.

This means that family and friends must stay away for 2 weeks.

You can still talk to family and friends on the phone.

If I feel upset about this I can talk to the staff or my family or friends.

