

The Psychological Society of Ireland (PSI) Member Awards

The Psychological Society of Ireland (PSI) Member Awards are designed to recognise excellence in research, practice, and education in psychology by members. These awards will range from those studying or teaching psychology to those making significant contributions in their professional careers. The award categories include:

1. Early Career Psychologist.
2. Contribution to Research in Psychology.
3. Contribution to Professional Practice Psychology.

This will involve a clear and transparent nomination process with set criteria for adjudication. The adjudication panel will include:

- PSI President (Chair of Adjudication Panel).
- An Academic Psychologist.
- An Early Career Psychologist representative.
- A Professional Practice Psychologist.

An individual may only be nominated once, and for one award category, in any particular year. Both the proposer and the nominee must be current PSI members and the nominee should consent to be nominated. Winners will be announced and presented with the relevant award at the PSI Annual Conference. Winners will be listed on the PSI website. Nomination materials should be submitted via email for the attention of the Awards Committee Chair at communications@psychologicalsociety.ie

Please note:

- Nominees can only be considered for one award category in any given year.
- Please ensure the category is clearly identified on the nomination form.
- Names will not be considered by the Awards Committee without a completed nomination form.
- Nominations will not be considered if the nomination is received after the closing date for receipt of nominations.
- Nominations will not be considered if the word count is exceeded.
- An acknowledgment email will be sent to the nominator upon receipt of the completed nomination form.

Closing date for nominations is 5pm on Wednesday 18 October 2023
